A brand new mixed-voice Community Choir in South Glos. It is led by one of the UK's best-known and widely respected choral directors.

"If you love to sing, then come along and meet us." That's the message from Grenville Jones the founder.

Rehearsals take place on Tuesday evenings, from 7.15pm to 9.00pm each week at Rangeworthy Village Hall on the B4058.

Come along and DISCOVER the fun of community singing. No previous singing experience is required and there are no auditions. There is a large car park at the hall.

The accompanist is Chris Green, who lives locally, and Grenville Jones brings a wealth of experience with choirs across the World, taking workshops, and is founder of 30 choirs including the celebrated, "Last Choir Standing" City of Bath Male Choir. He has appeared on Radio and TV across the UK, and worked alongside Gareth Malone and Mark de Lisser, as well as Katherine Jenkins, Aled Jones, Alfie Boe, Jamie Cullum and many others. He was one of "The Hundred" judges on the BBC's All Together Now series.

"There will be music for everyone and as the choir develops, we will sing at concerts and support local organisations with fundraising concerts. Come along with a friend to meet us," says Grenville.
